To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of recommendation for Jimmy Tingle of Humor for Humanity. Jimmy was our master of ceremonies for our first ever virtual fundraiser on February 25, 2021. Jimmy was able to bring a level of professionalism and quality to our program that exceeded our expectations. He did a fabulous job of injecting humor, “through the screen”, to keep our audience entertained. We obtained great positive feedback from our viewers that he was able to maintain engagement and get people laughing.

The process of working with Jimmy was easy, and he was always very thoughtful, considerate, and committed to making our event a success. He reviewed potential routines to be respectful of the type of content and degree of politics that could be included in his comedy. He also worked beautifully with our auctioneer—who he never met before till our dry runs—effectively and seamlessly transitioning between each other throughout the event. I have no qualms about working with Jimmy again.

We are so fortunate that we learned serendipitously about Jimmy’s services, and that ironically because of the pandemic, we had the benefit of featuring him in our virtual event despite being located on a different coast.

Sincerely,
