February 2019

At the end of each state convention, we survey our attendees and ask them for recommendations for future years. Since 2011, we've had Jimmy perform three times. Each time, Jimmy Tingle's performance was the highest rated part of the program. Our attendees include educators, school leaders, local elected officials, parents and their families. We needed something for everyone, and Jimmy went way over the bar.

Jimmy was the perfect fit for our state convention keynote. He had our audience laughing from beginning to the end with a unique brand of political humor, social satire, insight and down to earth funny material. He had the political junkies, liberal and conservative, as well as the folks who came with their families and just wanted to laugh out loud, standing at the end.

We had Jimmy back three times and sold out the room three times. He handles social satire, politics, and stand-up, taking the high road all the time armed with a quick wit, insight, and knowledge of who his audience is. Wow, did it work!

There's been a lot of competition around, but no one does what Jimmy does: entertains, gets us thinking, and brings on the belly laughs all at the same time.
